

Frome Walking Festival 2021

November 12th - 14th

Guided and self-guided walks for all ages and abilities

Friday 12th November

Unexpected Health Walk (South Frome) – 10:30am - 11:30am

A Health Walk is a walk done on a regular basis for well-being. This walk is a 2-mile, medium difficulty walk along the river and out into the countryside. Meet at Culver Co-op by taking the number 30 bus.

Saturday 13th November

Saxon Kings Way – 9:30am

FREE

Led by Les Stather, this linear walk links two Anglo-Saxon kings; King Eadred, King of England (AD 946-955) died in Frome in 955 AD; and his nephew King Edgar, King of England (AD 959-975) crowned in Bath Abbey in 973 AD. The route links Mendip Way East with the Cotswold Way. The walk is 14 miles long, but walkers can drop out along the way, as the route passes multiple bus stops.

A-Z of Frome – 10:00am - 11:30am

Take a journey through Frome to discover some significant and little-known aspects of its rich and varied past. From buildings and streets to people and events, the walk highlights fascinating aspects of the town's history, including stories of UFO sightings, a world-famous Roman coin hoard, local inns and the search for underground tunnels.

Orchardleigh – 11:00am - 3pm

A circular walk following riverside and field paths into the Orchardleigh estate, where it follows a muddy lakeside path and then tarmac driveway, returning to Frome via Spring Gardens and Cooper Hall. Led by Rich Ackroyd, this walk is approximately 7 miles.

Foul Frome - 12:30pm - 2pm

This walk is an eye-opening and entertaining ninety-minute walk in the footsteps of the town's most notorious rogues, rebels and renegades. Discover how Frome became embroiled in the Monmouth Rebellion, see the location of a 19th century murder and find out the reason behind the town's pitched battle with the Salvation Army, plus much more!

Saxon Frome - 1:00pm - 2.30pm

Frome was founded in 685CE, and later became an important town in Saxon Wessex. Barely any Saxon remains can now be seen but the shape of the town centre today is rooted in those early years of the settlement. This guided walk will explain what we know of Saxon Frome from its founding, through the rule of the Wessex kings including Alfred, Athelstan and Eadred, to the coming of the Normans. Led by Lisa Kenwright.

Tree Walk - 2:00pm - 3:30pm

Join local author and ancient tree specialist Julian Hight on a walk to see some of Frome's most majestic trees and hear about their history, lore and descendants. The easy walk will include Millennium Green and Rodden Meadow and take around an hour and a half. Led by Julian Hight.

Historic Inns of Frome - 3:00pm - 4:30pm

This walk will take in the sites of a dozen pubs and inns to give their histories and place them in their social context. Learn about the town's very own breweries, bankrupt landlords, an historic pub-crawl, rioting and the many various nefarious activities which took place. Based on the best-selling book 'Historic Inns of Frome'. The walk is led by author David Lassman.

Sunday 14th November

Religious Buildings (East) - 9am - 10am

When the Book of Common Prayer was imposed on the nation in 1662, Non-conformity flourished in Frome and in the 19th century the Anglican congregation was outnumbered by Non Conformists to a factor of 4 to 1.

The walk is through the east section of town for the most part and, apart from Portway Methodist Church, is accessible (with one diversion) but steep in places.

Heart of Frome - 9.20am - 10am

A walk through the heart of Frome that will fascinate and enthrall both children and adults alike.

Buggy Walk - 9.45am - 10.45am

FREE

A special buggy walk for those who want to socialise and enjoy being outside. A circular walk, approximately two miles at a moderate pace.

Frome At War - 12pm - 1.30pm

Frome at War discovers the contribution Frome and its people made during the two World Wars as well as stories about evacuees, Dunkirk survivors, American GIs and more. Follow in Field-Marshal Montgomery's footsteps, locate war graves of many who gave their lives, as well as Frome's very own VC holder, and discover both the story behind Frome's Official War Memorial and the night the town was bombed by the German Luftwaffe.

Health & Rivers Walk 1:30pm

A pleasant walk on the paths around Frome, following and taking in the river views along the way. Lasting around an hour.

Religious Buildings (West) 1:45pm - 3.15pm

When the Book of Common Prayer was imposed on the nation in 1662, Non-conformity flourished in Frome and in the 19th century the Anglican congregation was outnumbered by Non Conformists to a factor of 4 to 1. The walk is through the west section of town and is accessible, but steep in places.

Sense of Place 2pm - 3.30pm

A guided walk around the ancient market town of Frome, explaining the history and folklore behind some of the local place names. Taking in the older parts of Frome this walk explores the origins, real and imagined, of the names of places, streets and pubs and what they tell us about the society and culture of the town over its long history. Led by Frome Town Guide Lisa Kenwright.

All weekend
